vanished. He said that Bishop Mathew could tell of this matter.

Operative asked Rev. Schodtke if he ever saw Hamborsky drunk, while attempting to fulfill his duties in the church, and he replied that he had not seen him intoxicated in church, but several times had seen him in a drunken condition in the street and in trolley cars of New Brunswick.

Operative asked him if he could give a list of people who would be able to give operative information as to Hamborsky's conduct. Rev. Schodtke then made out a list which is as follows:

Mr. Parker, President National Bank, New Brunswick, N.J.
Rev. Bishop Mathews, Princeton, N.J.
Mr. Fedislaus Mathe, 73 French St., New Brunswick, N.J.
Dr. Louis Nanessy, Kirkland Pl, Perth Amboy, N.J.
Rev. Joseph Nagy, Thomas St., South River, N.J.
Father Burgess, 4th Ave. Episcopal Headquarters, N.Y. City
Mr. & Mrs. Lefkovics, 333 Handy St, 218 Townsend St. New Brunswick, N.J.
Rev. Sig. Laky, Youngstown, Ohio
Louis Hartman, Albany St.
Alex Lzolath, (saloon) 69 Plum St.
Alex Halasy, 59 Plum St. (elder)
Alex Hosztyo, 16 Division St. (chief Elder)
Szentgysigyi, 18 Scott St.
Mrs. Lzegho, 23 Church St.
Mrs. Deiner, 231 Talmadge St. (mother)
M. Tarcsaly, Division St.
Farkas (near Gowen's)
Possik, 29 Easton Ave.

Rev. Schodtke concluded saying that he was at the disposal of Mr. Carpenter at any time, and if need be, would come to testify as to any information he could give that would be of any help.

Respectfully submitted:
